How dear to this heart are the scenes of my childhood, When fond re-col-lection recalls them to view; The orchard, the meadow, the deep tangled wild wood, And every lov'd spot which my infancy knew The wide spreading pond and the

That moss-covered vessel I hail as a treasure,
 For often at noon, when returned from the field,
 I found it the source of an exquisite pleasure,
 The purest and sweetest that nature can yield,
 How ardent I seized it, with hands that were glowing,
 And quick to the white pebbled bottom it fell,
 Then soon with the emblem of truth o'erflowing,
 And dripping with coolness it rose from the well,
 The old oaken bucket, the iron-bound bucket,
 The moss-covered bucket arose from the well.
